With a holistic and individualised approach to wealth creation and financial security for his clients, Werner Watzdorf has become one of Australia's most trusted and preferred choices for financial advice.

"The Securitor national awards recognise practices and individual advisers who demonstrate exceptional standards in best practice, a commitment to continual development and a strong focus on top-quality financial advice" said Matt Englund, Head of Dealer Groups, BT Financial Group.

"Werner has a 22-year career focussed on helping Australians reach their financial goals," said Englund. "He is a highly energetic person with a drive to deliver exceptional client service and quality financial planning advice. He is widely recognised within the industry and most deserving of this award."

WA & MK Watzdorf Pty Ltd was incorporated in 1994 and in 2000 Werner completed his Diploma in Financial Planning with Deakin University and achieved Certified Financial Planner (CFP®) status with the Financial Planning Association of Australia (FPA).

WA & MK Watzdorf Pty Ltd entered into partnership with Don McLeod and Associates in 2003 forming McLeod Watzdorf Financial Planning.

"Our aim is to help clients build long-term financial success," says Werner.

"We are committed to providing clients with a courteous, honest, professional and caring service and approach our work with dedication, diligence and integrity."

As a testament to this, McLeod Watzdorf was also the recipient of this year's SA Practice of the Year award.

"At no point had I even considered being in the running for this, both individually or our practice. And how about both!"

"I am absolutely pumped to receive this award and cannot in any way describe the feeling of being honoured like this."
